Andy Alonso

A native New Yorker, Andy enjoyed a 20 year career cutting his teeth alongside The Big Apple's finest Jazz, Blues, and R&B musicians. A Pa. resident since 2005, Andy's passion for all styles of music, and his diverse stylistic pallet, have helped to establish him as one of the area's "first call" musicians. About the trio: "This trio is a blast! We're all equally excited about artists such as John Coltrane, Charlie Parker, The Beatles, and, Hendrix! When it comes time to play, we're not concerned with labels, we open up and let all those influences come through".

Scott T. Nelson

One of Central Pa.'s most respected guitarist, Scott Nelson has been performing and recording as both, a sideman, and, band leader, for the past 30 years. Adept at any style of music, Scott hones his craft playing with "The Scott Nelson Trio", "New World Parade"(his quartet), and, the NYC based "Oracle Room".

David Santana

If you're familiar with the Central Pa. music scene, then David Santana needs no introduction. David, whose career spans some 40 years, can be seen regularly, throughout Pa., laying down the beat for a number of different ensembles. Whether playing Jazz, Blues, Latin, Funk, or Rock, David Santana delivers the groove!
